Chinese army swords, made in Shanghai.

These swords have been made in Shanghai and form part of a contract that Mr. Shen Yung Shing made with the Kiangsi Government - Nanchang - in 1912.-

The swords could not be delivered on account of the 2nd revolution in 1913: no money could be sent down to Shanghai and the swords thus remained undelivered. Mr. Shen Yung Shing died shortly afterwards and his partners asked us - respectively our Compradore - to store the swords in our place to be sold when occasion offers to do so.-

We have done business with Mr. Shen Yung Shing for Szechuen in former years in the same line.-

NETHERLANDS CONSULATE-GENERAL,

Shanghai, 2nd April 1917.

No.651.

Sir,

In conformance with the desire verbally expressed by you to me, although there is no obligation from my side to that effect, I have complied with that desire in order to give the least trouble to you and to the German subjects, with the protection whose interests I have been charged, I have the honour now to forward to you herewith a list of the German subjects, which have been registered at this Consulate General at my intimation. In the list and at the end of it, you will find the arms, which are in their possession. I enclose also a list of the removals, which have taken place, and came to my notice since the closing of the other list and a supplementary list of some arms.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Consul-General of the Netherlands, in charge with the protection of the German interests.

Wu Chao-hsin, Esq.,
Special Envoy for Foreign Affairs, PEKING.
